SIGNATURE

I hereby confirm the truthfulness of the submitted information.

With my signature, I furthermore confirm that I have read and consent to the following terms:

- 1) My application will be processed by an admission committee, consisting of four residents and the Provost of Regensen

- 2) Personal data from my application may be handled electronically by the admission committee when assessing it. Any such electronic data, as well as any physical copies of it, will be deleted when the committee has processed all applications and has reached a decision on admissions. The collegium can retain a list of former applicants (name, address, phone number, e-mail, line of study) for up to five years

- 3) Should I be admitted to Regensen, the collegium will retain my application for admission (including potentially sensitive information and personal information) and keep this after I have vacated Regensen. The information will be kept in the Regensenp archive and serves a historical and cultural heritage-purpose.
Regensen will delete and destroy all versions of my application (including all appendices) within one year, should I not be admitted for the college.
